ART IN MIND 2023

The Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA of NB) in Charlotte County is excited to host our fifth creative works exhibit to shine a light on mental illness.

If you are a resident of Charlotte County living with the effects of mental illness and have art works you would like to share, we invite you to submit your work for juried consideration.

The Art In Mind 2023 Exhibit will run November 17 - December 4, 2023.
at Sunbury Shores Arts and Nature Centre—139 Water St. St Andrews, NB

Please stop in and view the creative accomplishments of our friends and neighbours!

Acceptable Mediums:

Visual
Textile Literary

Selection Criteria:

Art works will be selected based on the creative expression and proficiency in chosen medium

Process

- Applicants are invited to submit a maximum of three (3) original art works.
- A completed application form must be included with each submission.
- The application process does not require you to send your original works. Only photographs or digital images of your work should accompany your application.
- Applications must include a brief Artist Statement. Your statement describes the significance of creativity in your life and how the creative process improves your mental well-being. Please note that artist statements will be displayed and should not be longer than 100-word count.
- Applications and images or pictures of your work are to be submitted by email to lisa.cheney@cmhanb.ca or by mail to Attn: Lisa Cheney C/O CMHA of NB office (St Mark's Anglican Church Building), 28 Main St., St. George, NB E5C 3J2.
- Submissions to be received no later than 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 31, 2023.
- Applicants will be notified once the selection committee has finalized decisions.
- If you are selected, you will be asked to bring your work to the Mental Health Clinic in St. George or St. Stephen by Thursday, September 14, 2023.
